

MEMO: 40-21

TO: All Clubs
FROM: Andrew Parkes
DATE: 22th April 2021
SUBJECT: Recommendations Paper Update - 3

Dear Colleagues,

Further to the previous email I wish to provide you with an update as to where we are at with Football Queensland and their rollout of their Recommendations Paper.

The whole board of FGC meet on Monday 12th April to analyzed and dissect the Recommendations Paper. I would like to thank all those who took time to provided us with their questions which were all tabled and discussed at our meeting.

I can confirm that robust discussion was had and a number of issues and concerns were raised. As a result we have submitted a list of questions to FQ that we have requested answers and clarity on which FQ will provide us at our upcoming meeting.

I wish to reinforce that the Board of FGC has not committed to anything with FQ and will not without the consultation and advice from our clubs. At the end of the day any decision to make changes to our governance and or administration will fall to the clubs, as members of FGC to decide and vote on.

I can confirm that the following has been set as the next few steps.

1. Tuesday 4th May at 5.30pm – Board of FGC will be meeting with Robert Cavallucci together with a minimum of 3 board members of FGC which will take place in our offices
 - a. This will be the opportunity to Rob and the board to answer the questions that have been posed while at the same time outline the Recommendations Paper in greater detail.
2. Monday 10th May at 6.30pm @ GC Knights – Robert Cavallucci and members of the FQ board will meet with FGC clubs, in the presence of the FGC Board to present and discuss the Recommendations Paper.

I urge all executive committee members of our clubs to please make yourselves available to attend the meeting on the 10th May so that you may get a better understanding of the impact of the Recommendation Paper and how FQ intends on rolling it out.

This is an important time in the future of FGC and the game on the Gold Coast and we require the input, advice and support of all our clubs.

Should you have any questions please feel free to contact Damien in the office or me personally at chairman@footballgc.com.au.

Regards

Andrew Parkes
Chairman.
